

The Student Academic Resource Center is Now Hiring Peer Academic Coaches

The UCF Access Program is now hiring peer Academic Coaches for the Summer B term. This position will allow students the opportunity to coach freshmen students during their first semester at UCF and help them develop college level study skills. Additionally, coaches help students develop critical thinking skills and decision-making skills.

To learn more about the Access Program please visit:

<http://access.sdes.ucf.edu/>

To learn more about the SARC position please visit:

<http://sarc.sdes.ucf.edu/employment>

Position Responsibilities:

- Facilitate 1-1 coaching sessions with first year students
- Assist students transition to UCF by helping them develop college level study skills
- Participate in training, weekly team meetings, and Access Program events

Preferred Qualifications:

- Strong interpersonal, leadership and communication skills
- Current UCF student (Junior/Senior or graduate status preferred)
- Minimum 3.0 GPA
- Experience with Access Program or other relevant experience

Time Commitment

- Must be available for Summer B Term (June 25th through August 2th, 2018)
- Able to commit 15-20 hours per week
- Available for training on June 1st & 8th and Orientation on June 18th

If interested please apply via the following link:

<http://sarc.sdes.ucf.edu/employment>

Deadline to Apply (Extended): April 20, 2018

If you have any questions, please contact:

Brandy Espinosa at Brandy.Espinosa@ucf.edu

