

Student Academic Resource Center

Mastering College Level Coursework Seminar

“The Critical First Two Weeks”

Welcome to UCF and Seminar Overview

- This is not High School, this is College – Rising to College Level Expectations, Change in Habits and a Change in Behavior
- Interesting UCFacts
- Meet a Fellow Knight

Being Successful in the Classroom

- Preparation for the College Classroom
- Developing an Active Role Inside the Classroom
- Importance of Attendance

How to Build a Functional Working Relationship with your UCF Professors

- Email and Classroom Etiquette
- Standing Out in a Classroom of 30 to 300
- Receiving Letters of Recommendations
- Perception of UCF Faculty of UCF Students

Course Organization

- Tools Needed for Effective Academic Organization
- Documentation – It Is Your Responsibility Now

Goal Setting and Motivation

- Keeping Your Bright Future Scholarship
- Making Dean’s List
- Making President’s Honor Role
- Being Prepared for Scholarship Opportunities

Time Management – “The Number One Killer of College Students – Procrastination”

- Introduction of the “Every Day” Concept of Time Management
- Balancing Techniques between a Job, Campus Involvement, and Academic Responsibilities

UCF Academic Support Resources

- UCF Provides Help for Students – Academically, Personally, Career, Majors, and much more
- College Level Study Skills Necessary for Success at UCF

UCF Undergraduate Student Panel

...and much, much, more!

“My Success is My Responsibility”