Go Knights!!!

Are you ready for the 2007 Learning Fair!!!

SARC is getting ready for its Annual Learning Fair. The Learning Fair will offer you the opportunity to meet the different offices from across the campus and learn about the resources they have to offer. All Pegasus, CAP and STEP students are required to attend at least one Academic Success workshop and there will be four workshops during the Learning Fair on topics such as ,Goal settings, How to Study Science, Stress Management and Keys to Success. Attending the Learning Fair is a great way to meet new people, earn 1000 link loot points for attending and an additional 500 points for the workshops. It will also help you to improve your study skills. I hope to see you at the Learning Fair this Wednesday, September 19, 2007 between 10am and 2pm. There will be food, prizes and lots of fun!

What goals have you set for this semester?

- President's Honor Roll- 4.0 GPA
- Dean's List -3.4 GPA
- Making an "A" in a class- studying and working hard.
- Keeping your scholarship- be aware of the GPA requirements and how many credit hours you must complete.

Your Advisor wants to meet with you!!!

All Pegasus, CAP and STEP students are required to meet with their Academic Advisor before the withdrawal deadline, October 12, 2007.
